108 CastlesRoad North, Craignish

This home represents the traditional Queensland style whilst being modern (just twelve years old), bang up to date inside and beautifully presented.

Impressive inside and out, the main living is on the first floor which makes the most of the sea breeze and views.

The large front veranda faces East and will be cool during the afternoon as the sun drops down in the West. So, you can enjoy all your meals al fresco.

Airy open plan living around a wide internal timber staircase offers all weather access to the internal garage and ground floor with its massive open space.

The kitchen has a great layout for easy food preparation and the appliances are all stainl...
